

Crossing Kingdoms: an international synthetic biology symposium

The Sainsbury Laboratory – University of Cambridge

16-18 April 2018

Crossing Kingdoms is an international 3 day-event bringing together scientists from the microbial, animal and plant fields to present their results and highlighting how knowledge from these different life forms provide tools for synthetic biology innovations and applications.

www.crossingkingdoms.org

List of confirmed speakers:

Pamela Silver, Harvard University

Matias Zurbriggen, University of Düsseldorf

Chang Liu, UC Irvine

Dan Voytas, University of Minnesota

Ben Blount, Imperial College

Sean Cutler, UC Riverside

Alison Smith, University of Cambridge

Sarah O'Connor, John Innes Centre

Anne Osbourn, John Innes Centre

